

Maine DEP Jeepers Peepers 2004

EVALUATION FORM 4th through 6th GRADE ESSAY CONTEST

Question:

Now it's your turn to be the climate detective. What clues would you, as a scientist, use to determine whether or not the earth's climate is changing? Please tell us about some examples of environmental clues that you think are important for scientists to keep studying.

Essay #
Reviewer Name

Major Rating Criteria	Subcategories	Maximum Points	Points Scored
Creative Thinking (30 points total)	1. Information shows individual creative thinking skills	30
Scientific Accuracy (30 points total)	1. Information was researched and clearly relates to the topic	10
	2. Information is accurate and logical	10
	3. Information provides supporting details and/or examples	10
Clear writing including grammar, spelling, and punctuation (30 points total)	1. Grammar, spelling, and punctuation is correct	15
	2. Information is very organized, neatly written, and has well constructed paragraphs	15
Total		90

(a) Page requirements: 4th - 6th grades 200 words max./7th and 8th grades 400 words max.

(b) Note: Essays are NOT required to be typed, the emphasis is on organization and neatness, whether it is typed or handwritten